CPD Case# 14-2726-OF

CONCORD, NH - The Concord Police Department is asking the public for their assistance in identifying two suspects involved in a recent theft.

The incident in question occurred on January 19, 2014 at approximately 12:30 PM at the Walgreens pharmacy, located at 142 Loudon Road, Concord.

It is alleged that a female entered the store at 12:30 PM, removed two Philips Norelco Electric razor heads and then exited the store without paying for them. The estimated value of the stolen merchandise is $64.00.

Video evidence revealed that after exiting the store the female met with a male subject on a sidewalk adjacent to Loudon Road. The female could be seen handing the bag with the stolen merchandise to the male.

Upon obtaining the bag with the razor heads, the male entered the store and attempted to return them for cash. A store employee denied the return, after which the male subject kept the stolen merchandise and exited the store.

The female is described as white and possibly in her 20s and was wearing a dark winter vest-style jacket over a light-colored long sleeve shirt. The male is described as white and also in his 20s and was wearing a blue hooded sweatshirt and jeans.

Police have recovered video surveillance from store security and is asking the public to assist in identifying the individuals of interest depicted in the photographs.
