CPD Case# 14-2866-OF

CONCORD, NH - The Concord Police Department is asking the public for their assistance in identifying the suspects in a recent theft. The incident took place at Walmart, located at 344 Loudon Road, Concord.

The alleged incident occurred on Wednesday, January 15, at approximately 8:15PM when two females entered the store and went to the electronics area. One of the females placed two television sets into her carriage. One of the televisions was a 32" VIZIO LED and the other was a 39" VIZIO LED.

The two females then left the electronics area where at one point they got a brown beanbag chair and placed it in the carriage and then walked toward the exit. As they exited they were approached by a store employee who asked to see their receipt. The two females ignored the employee and exited the store without paying for the merchandise. The females were last seen getting into what was described only as a full-sized dark (possibly blue) vehicle.

One of the females was described as being in her twenties with long brown hair, slim build and wearing a brown sweatshirt and jeans. The other female was described as being in her forties with long brown hair and slim build wearing a dark colored AERO sweatshirt and jeans.

The combined value of the merchandise that was stolen is approximately $700.00.

Police have recovered video surveillance from store security and is asking the public to assist in identifying the individuals of interest depicted in the photographs.
